1998-1999 SERGEANTS YEARBOOK

The Members of The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company once again rallied to a noble cause, the orderly succession of Captain Commanding.

Our Year started with a well attended June Day Celebration, climaxed with a trip that traversed Canada under the leadership of Captain John Arthur Moore and ended with this chronology.

The Sergeants 1998-1999 wish to express thanks for the unbounded support of the Company in 1998-1999.

Respectfully submitted,

Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts

The First Military Company in the Western Hemisphere

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts

Chartered in 1638

An Organization of Distinction

Printed in the USA, The Bailey Press, Winchester, MA

THE SERGEANTS

The archives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts contain an entry dated March 13, 1638, indicating that Governor Winthrop granted a charter to the Military Company of Massachusetts. The records of the "Company" reveal that on the first Monday in June, 1638, Robert Keayne was elected the first commander and John Oliver and Joshua Hughes elected Sergeants.

Richard Morris, a charter member of the company, served as Sergeant in 1637 and Thomas Savage, another charter member, is noted as serving as the Company's first Orderly Sergeant. Thus began the traditions of Sergeant's service to the Company that has survived to modern times with little change.

Today, candidates for Sergeant of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts usually begin planning a year of two in advance and join forces with other Ancients to prepare a campaign for election to the office for the year of their choice. Each candidate must declare his intention to seek the position of Sergeant of Infantry or Sergeant of Artillery. Nominations are held on the first Monday in May. Elections are held at the Second Regular Meeting in May and along with other commissioned officers, six Sergeants of Infantry and six of Artillery are elected.

The seniority of the Sergeants is determined by popular vote with the First Sergeant of Infantry being the "Chairman" for the group. At the ceremonial Drumhead Election on June Day, on Boston Common, The new Sergeants assume their responsibilities as they receive their Espontoons and march off the Common to host their first hospitality event prior to the June Day Banquet.

The ensuing twelve months are filled with great activity; meetings financial matters, social functions, parades, the Fall Field Day Tour of Duty, funeral details and the Year Book.

During the course of the year, relationships between the Sergeants establish bonds as close as brothers, which last the rest of their lives.

Note: Being a Sergeant in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery perhaps was best described by LTC Jack Drummey: "Most men wouldn't take the job again for a million dollars . . . or trade the experience for two million."

ANCIENTS

...part of a proud tradition

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

James Monroe The 5th President

4 March 1817 to 4 March 1825

He was a Virginian and succeeded Madison. He was the fourth President from Virginia. He had been Secretary of State and of War under Madison. His administration is known as the "era of good feelings." There was no political strife. Upon re-election Monroe received all but one of the electoral votes cast. The dissenting vote was cast by an elector from New Hampshire who declared that only Washington should have the honor of a unanimous election.

James Monroe was born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, on 28 April 1758. In 1776 he enlisted in the Continental Army where he served with distinction. After the War he studied law and served in the Virginia Legislature; and, in 1790 he was elected to the United States Senate. He represented the United States in France, Spain and England. He negotiated the Louisiana Purchase. He was twice Governor of Virginia. Monroe married Elizabeth Kortwright of New York in 1786 and had two daughters.

During the Monroe administration Florida was purchased from Spain. Agitation over the admission of Missouri as a slave state resulted in the Missouri Compromise of 1820. His name has become inseparable associated with the famous political doctrine which denies to European nations the right to interfere with the existing governments in North and South America, or to colonize any part of the Americas. Known as the Monroe Doctrine, it was first expressed in his annual message of 1823 and has tremendously influenced our attitude toward South American countries and our whole foreign policy right up to the present time.

When President Monroe visited Boston in 1817, he was received with great enthusiasm and was provided with a military escort. It was on this visit that President Monroe was enrolled a member of the A&HAC on 30 June 1817 and was then elected an Honorary Member, the highest distinction which the Company can bestow.

James Monroe retired to Virginia when he left the White House. Later he went to visit with a daughter in New York, where he died on 4 July 1831. He was the third President to die on the nation's birthday. Burial in 1831 was in New York but in 1858 his remains were removed with great pomp to Richmond, Virginia, and re-interred 5 July in the Hollywood Cemetery.

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

Chester Alan Arthur The 21st President

20 September 1881 to 4 March 1885

An assassin's bullet ended the term of President Garfield and Vice President Chester Alan Arthur moved into the office of President on 20 September 1881. When he retired in 1885 he had won respect for his administration.

Chester Alan Arthur was born in Fairfield, Vermont, on 5 October 1830, the son of a Baptist minister. He graduated from Union College, taught school, and studied law. In 1854 he was admitted to the bar and began to practice in New York City. He married Ellen Lewis Herndon in 1859. He became prominent because of his success in two suits involving negroes. One was the "Lemmon Case" in which he secured a decision that a slave brought into New York in transit between two slave states was free while in New York; the other decision was that negroes were entitled to the same privileges as white people on the street railways of New York City. During the Civil War Arthur served as quartermaster general of the state troops. He was appointed Collector of Customs for the Port of New York in 1871.

He proved to be a capable Chief Executive and reversed his previous policy toward the Civil Service by signing the Pendleton Law for its reform in 1883. During his term of office the Tariff Act of 1883 was passed; the Southern Pacific, the Northern Pacific, and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroads were completed; a treaty with Nicaragua was negotiated to permit us to construct a canal, railway and telegraph line across that country; a reciprocal trade treaty with Mexico was signed; and the Washington Monument was completed and on Saturday, 21 February 1885 it was dedicated. On the occasion of this dedication, in General Philip H. Sheridan's Order, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company was assigned as Honorary Escort to the President of the United States. The President tendered the entire Company a reception at the White House.

In 1882, the Fall Field Day Tour of Duty was celebrated in Marshfield on account of the centennial celebration of the birthday of Daniel Webster. The Company had been invited to do escort duty to the President of the United States. It was on the occasion of this pleasant duty that President Arthur was enrolled a member of the A&HAC on 12 October 1882, and was then elected an Honorary Member, the highest distinction which the Company can bestow.

When his term expired, President Arthur retired to New York, where he lived less than two years, dying on 18 November 1886. Burial was in Rural Cemetery, Albany, New York.

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

Calvin Coolidge The 30th President

3 August 1923 to 4 March 1929

Vice President Calvin Coolidge moved into the office of President just before dawn on 3 August 1923, three hours after the news of President Harding's death reached him at Plymouth, Vermont, where he was visiting his father. The oath of office was administered there by his father, a justice of the peace and country storekeeper.

A farmhouse in Plymouth, Vermont, was the birthplace of Calvin Coolidge on 4 July 1872 and his boyhood and youth were spent there. He graduated from Amherst College, studied law and began to practice in Northampton, Massachusetts. In 1905 he married Grace Anna Goodhue of Burlington, Vermont.

In Northampton he entered local politics and later served in the Massachusetts House of Representatives and Senate. He became President of the Senate; was elected Lieutenant Governor and was Governor in 1919 and again in 1920. In every official post he held, economy and efficiency were the ideals to which he adhered. Governor Coolidge attained national prominence with his handling of the Boston Police Strike in 1919, and in 1920 at the Republican national convention he was nominated for the vice presidency of the United States.

When Calvin Coolidge took over the post vacated by President Harding's death, he continued to function in the calm, judicial way in which he had filled all previous offices. Economy was his watchword and he carried out his principle, worked for tax reduction and the retirement of national indebtedness.

President Coolidge was nominated by the Republicans for a second term in 1924. His administration was an era of prosperity in the United States and he was considered for a third term. However, on 2 August 1927 President Coolidge announced, "I do not choose to run for President in 1928." His decision was firm.

As Governor of Massachusetts, Calvin Coolidge had been the Commander-in-Chief of the A&HAC. During his administration he won the high regard and admiration of all thoughtful men and women. He stood firmly for the principles our Company had advocated during its existence. For these reasons, President Coolidge was enrolled as a member of A&HAC on 5 May 1924 and was then elected an Honorary Member.

In 1929 President Coolidge retired to his home in Northampton, Massachusetts, where he died on 3 January 1933. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Plymouth, Vermont.

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

John F. Kennedy The 35th President

20 January 1961 to 22 November 1963

John F. Kennedy, at 43, was the youngest man ever elected President and was the first Roman Catholic to hold the office. He was born in Brookline, Massachusetts, on 29 May 1917, the second son in the large family of Joseph P. Kennedy and Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy, the daughter of a former Boston Mayor. He was graduated from Harvard in 1940. His senior thesis was published in the same year under the title, Why England Slept.

In World War II, Lieutenant Kennedy commanded a PT boat in the Pacific and for gallantry in action he received the Navy and Marine Corps Medal. He was elected to Congress in 1946 and to the United States Senate in 1952. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1958. He was married in 1953 to Jacqueline Lee Bouvier of New York. In 1955 he wrote his Pulitzer Prize-winning best seller, Profiles in Courage.

He began his Administration by calling for a "New Frontier" and asked for immediate action on many social and economic problems. The New Frontier brought youth and excitement, tone and style to the White House and Kennedy's warm, vigorous public image was as well known abroad as here at home.

President Kennedy established the Peace Corps and in Southeast Asia he negotiated a truce in Laos and increased American aid to fight the Vietnamese Communists.

During his term, the East Germans aggravated the Berlin situation by constructing a wall across the city in August 1961 to halt the flow of refugees to the West. In 1962 aerial reconnaissance showed missiles and warplanes in Cuba capable of attacking much of the U.S. and South America. Kennedy ordered a naval blockade of the island to prevent further arms shipments.

On 22 November 1963 President Kennedy was shot twice as his motorcade paraded through the streets of Dallas, Texas. The President died within an hour. The accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, was captured the same day, but was himself shot and killed before he could be brought to trial.

John F. Kennedy was enrolled a member of the A&HAC on 16 April 1956 and was elected an Honorary Member on 3 April 1961. On the occasion of his Inaugural as President on 20 January 1961, seventy-five officers and members proudly participated in the Inaugural Parade in Washington, D.C.

George H. Maynard*

Private George Henry Maynard
Battle of Fredericksburg, Virginia
13 December 1862

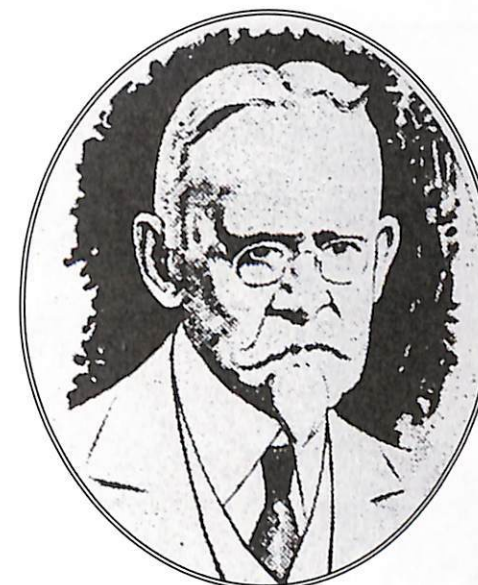

"A wounded and helpless comrade, having been left on the skirmish line, this soldier voluntarily returned to the front line under a severe fire and carried the wounded man to a place of safety."

George Henry Maynard, born in Waltham, Massachusetts, 2 February 1836, enlisted as a private in the 13th Massachusetts Infantry and was assigned to Company D. He distinguished himself at the Battle of Antietam, when on 17 September 1862, while under fire, he carried two wounded comrades from the firing line to a rear area and then returned to the firing line.

In January 1864, he was commissioned as a Captain in the 82nd Regiment of U.S. Colored Infantry. He was promoted to Brevet Major on 13 March 1865, for distinguished and meritorious service, and was mustered out on 10 September of the following year.

Major Maynard served the A&HAC as 1st Sergeant of Infantry in 1879 and then as 4th Sergeant in 1887. He died in Waltham, Massachusetts, 26 December 1927, at the age of 91 years.

Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient
Lowell Mason Maxham*

Corporal Lowell Mason Maxham
Battle of Marye's Heights, Virginia

3 May 1863

This soldier, though severely wounded and in the face of a deadly fire from the enemy at close range, hearing a call to retreat, rallied the colors, rushed bravely forward, and was the first to enter the enemy's works on the crest of Marye's Heights, Virginia, and helped plant his regimental colors there."

Lowell Mason Maxham, born in South Carver, Massachusetts, 6 December 1841, was assigned as a Private in Company F of the 7th Massachusetts Infantry. As a Corporal he fought through the Peninsular Campaign of 1862- at Antietam and Fredericksburg- and then the Chancellorsville Campaign the next year, including the Battle of Marye's Heights. Immediately after this victory, lines were reformed. Maxham was called before his regiment and promoted to Color Sergeant. Not realizing how badly Maxham was wounded, the commander placed the colors in his charge. Maxham took the flag into the second battle of the day at Salem Heights where he was again wounded and carried from the battlefield disabled for life. He was discharged from the service by reason of wounds on 18 August 1863.

Corporal Maxham served the A&HAC as 3rd Sergeant of Infantry in 1891. He died in Boston Massachusetts, 13 February 1931, at the age of 89 years.

Francis Snow Hasseltine*

Colonel Francis Snow Hasseltine
Matagorda Bay, Texas,
29 and 30 December 1863

"In command of a detachment of 100 men, he conducted a reconnaissance for two days, baffling and beating back an attacking force of more than 1,000 Confederates, and regained his transport without loss."

Francis Snow Hasseltine, born in Bangor, Maine, 10 December 1833, was a member of the 13th Maine Infantry. He was a lawyer by profession. In Volume 1 of Civil War Papers published by the Loyal Legion in 1893, an article appears written by Colonel Hasseltine entitled, "Amusing The Enemy." He vividly described the action at Matagorda Bay but modestly omitted the fact that he was awarded the nation's highest military decoration.

Colonel Hasseltine served as a member of the A&HAC for many years before his death in Newtonville, Massachusetts, 17 February 1916, at the age of 83 years.

Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient
Gardner Chandler Hawkins*

Firsts Lieutenant Gardner Chandler Hawkins
The Battle of Petersburg, Virginia

2 April 1865

"When the lines were wavering from the well directed fire of the enemy, this officer, acting Adjutant of the regiment, sprang forward, and with encouraging words cheered the soldiers on, and although desperately wounded, refused to leave the field until the enemy's works were taken."

Gardner Chandler Hawkins, born in Pomfret, Vermont, in 1846, joined Company E 3rd Vermont Infantry and rose to the rank of First Lieutenant. His battle citations were numerous. He won the Medal of Honor during the last desperate days of the War. The wound he received resulted in the loss of an eye.

In 1894, he earned the rank of Colonel by serving on the Military Staff of His Excellency Frederic T. Greenhalge, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and Commander-in-Chief of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery of Massachusetts.

Colonel Hawkins served as a member of the A&HAC for many years before his death in Winthrop, Massachusetts, 13 December 1913, at the age of 67 years.

Fifth A.H.A.C.
Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient
George Levick Street, III

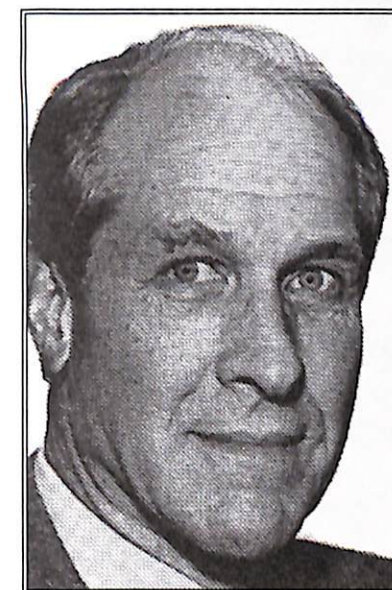

LT. Commander George Levick Street, III
 Harbor of Qualpart Island, off Korea
 14 April 1945

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty as Commanding Officer of the U.S.S. TIRANTE during the First War Patrol of that vessel against enemy Japanese surface forces in the Harbor of Qualpart Island, off the Coast of Korea, on April 14, 1945. With the crew at surface battle stations, Commander (then Lieutenant Commander) Street approached the hostile anchorage from the south within 1200 yards of the coast to complete a reconnoitering circuit of the island. Leaving the ten-fathom curve far behind, he penetrated the mined and shoal-obstructed waters of the restricted harbor despite numerous patrolling vessels and in defiance of five shore-based radar stations and menacing aircraft. Prepared to fight it out on the surface if attacked, Commander Street went into action, sending two torpedoes with deadly accuracy into a large Japanese ammunition ship and exploding the target in a mountainous and blinding glare of white flame. With the TIRANTE instantly spotted by the enemy as she stood out plainly in the flare of light, he ordered the Torpedo Data Computer set up while retiring and fired his last two torpedoes to disintegrate in quick succession the leading frigate and a similar flanking vessel. Clearing the gutted harbor at emergency full speed ahead, he slipped undetected along the shoreline, diving deep as a pursuing patrol dropped a pattern of depth charges at the point of submergence. His illustrious record of combat achievement during the First War Patrol of the TIRANTE characterizes Commander Street as a daring and skilled leader and reflects the highest credit upon his valiant command and the United States Naval Service."

George Levick Street, III born in Richmond, Virginia 27 July 1913 graduated from the Naval Academy in 1937 and was commissioned an Ensign in June of that year. Besides the Congressional Medal Of Honor, he is the holder of the Navy Cross, Two Silver Stars, Presidential Unit Citation, and the Submarine Combat Insignia, all awarded for a series of submarine patrols against the Japanese commencing in early 1942.

Captain Street was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC, 27 September 1982. He thus became the fifth member to have received the nation's highest military honor.

Sixth A.H.A.C.
Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient
Thomas Jerome Hudner, Jr.

Captain Thomas Jerome Hudner, Jr.
 Chosen Reservoir Area of Korea

4 December 1950

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty as a pilot in Fighter Squadron 32, while attempting to rescue a squadron mate whose plane struck by antiaircraft fire and trailing smoke, was forced down behind enemy lines. Quickly maneuvering to circle the downed pilot and protect him from enemy troops infesting the area, Lt. (jg.) Hudner risked his life to save the injured flier who was trapped alive in the burning wreckage. Fully aware of the extreme danger in landing on the rough mountainous terrain, and the scant hope of escape or survival in subzero temperature, he put his plane down skillfully in a deliberate wheels-up landing in the presence of enemy troops. With his bare hands, he packed the fuselage with snow to keep the flames away from the pilot and struggled to pull him to his crashed aircraft and radioed other airborne planes, requesting that a helicopter be dispatched with an axe and fire extinguisher. He then remained on the spot despite the continuing danger from enemy action and, with the assistance of the rescue pilot, renewed a desperate but unavailing battle against time, cold, and flames. Lt. (jg.) Hudner's exceptionally valiant action and selfless devotion to a shipmate sustain and enhance the highest traditions of the U.S. Naval Service."

Captain Hudner was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC, on 17 April 1990. He thus became the sixth member to have received the nation's highest military honor.

*Seventh A.H.A.C.
Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient
Charles A. MacGillivray*

Sergeant Charles A. MacGillivray
Woelfling, France

1 January 1945

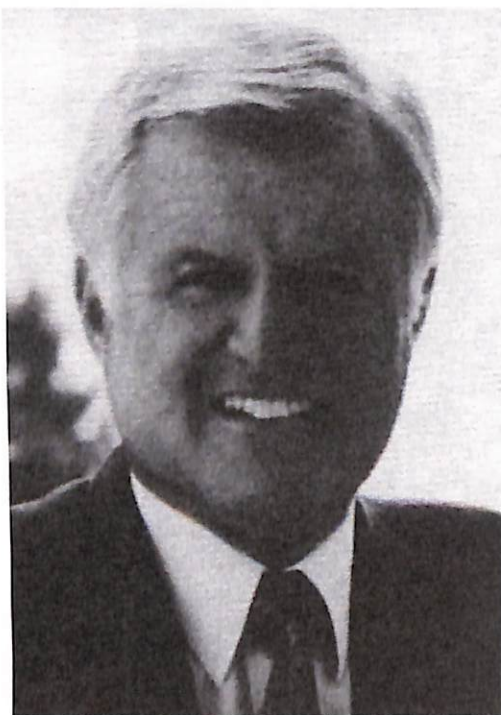

"Sergeant MacGillivray led a squad near Woelfling, France on 1 January 1945 when his unit moved forward in darkness to meet the threat of a breakthrough by elements of the 17th German Panzer Grenadier Division. Assigned to protect the left flank, he discovered hostile troops digging in. As he reported this information, several German machine guns opened fire, stopping the American advance. Knowing the position of the enemy, Sergeant MacGillivray volunteered to knock out one of the guns while another company closed in from the right to assault the remaining strong points. He circled to the left through woods and snow, carefully worked his way to the emplacement and shot the two camouflaged gunners at a range of three feet, as other enemy forces withdrew. Early in the afternoon of the same day, Sergeant MacGillivray was dispatched on reconnaissance and found that Company I was being opposed by about six machine guns reinforcing a company of fanatically fighting Germans. His unit began an attack but was pinned down by furious automatic and small arms fire. With a clear idea of where the enemy guns were placed, he voluntarily embarked on a lone combat patrol. Skillfully taking advantage of all available cover, he stalked the enemy, reached a hostile machine gun and blasted its crew with a grenade. He picked up a sub-machine gun from the battlefield and pressed on to within ten yards of another machine gun, where the enemy crew discovered him and feverishly tried to swing their weapon into line to cut him down. He charged ahead, jumped into the midst of the Germans and killed them with several bursts. Without hesitation, he moved on to still another machine gun, creeping, crawling and rushing from tree to tree, until close enough to toss a grenade into the emplacement and close with its defenders. He dispatched this crew also, but was himself seriously wounded. Through his indomitable fighting spirit, great initiative and utter disregard for personal safety in the face of powerful enemy resistance, Sergeant MacGillivray destroyed four hostile machine guns, and immeasurably helped his company to continue on its mission with minimum casualties."

Sergeant Charles A. MacGillivray was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC on 6 April 1992. He thus became the seventh member to have received the nation's highest military honor.

Dear Friends:

I am once again delighted to offer my warmest congratulations to each of the men of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of the occasion of the 361st anniversary.

All of those involved in honoring our nations courageous service men are to be commended for the loyal and unselfish dedication they have shown. I greatly admire all involved and know that there are many people who admire the commitment the Artillery Company has shown to the United States and the Commonwealth.

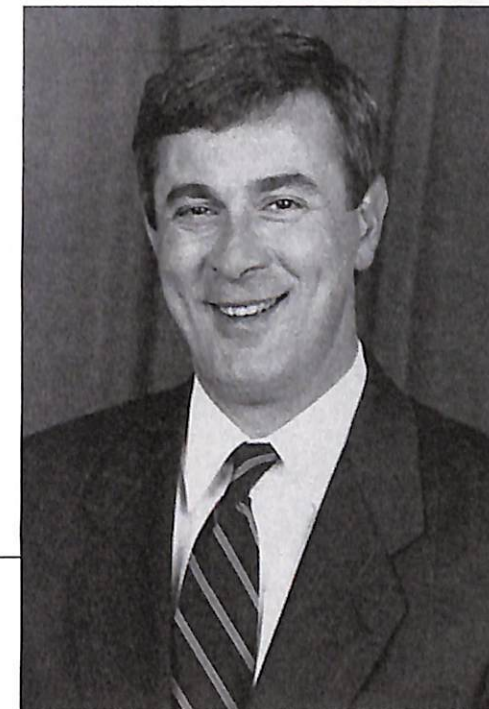

The Artillery has a proud heritage that should be preserved and I have confidence that there will be continued success for it in the future.

With my warm regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

Throughout 1998-1999 the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company has continued to be a point of strength and support to the Massachusetts National Guard. This support has been a tradition throughout the life and history of both organizations.

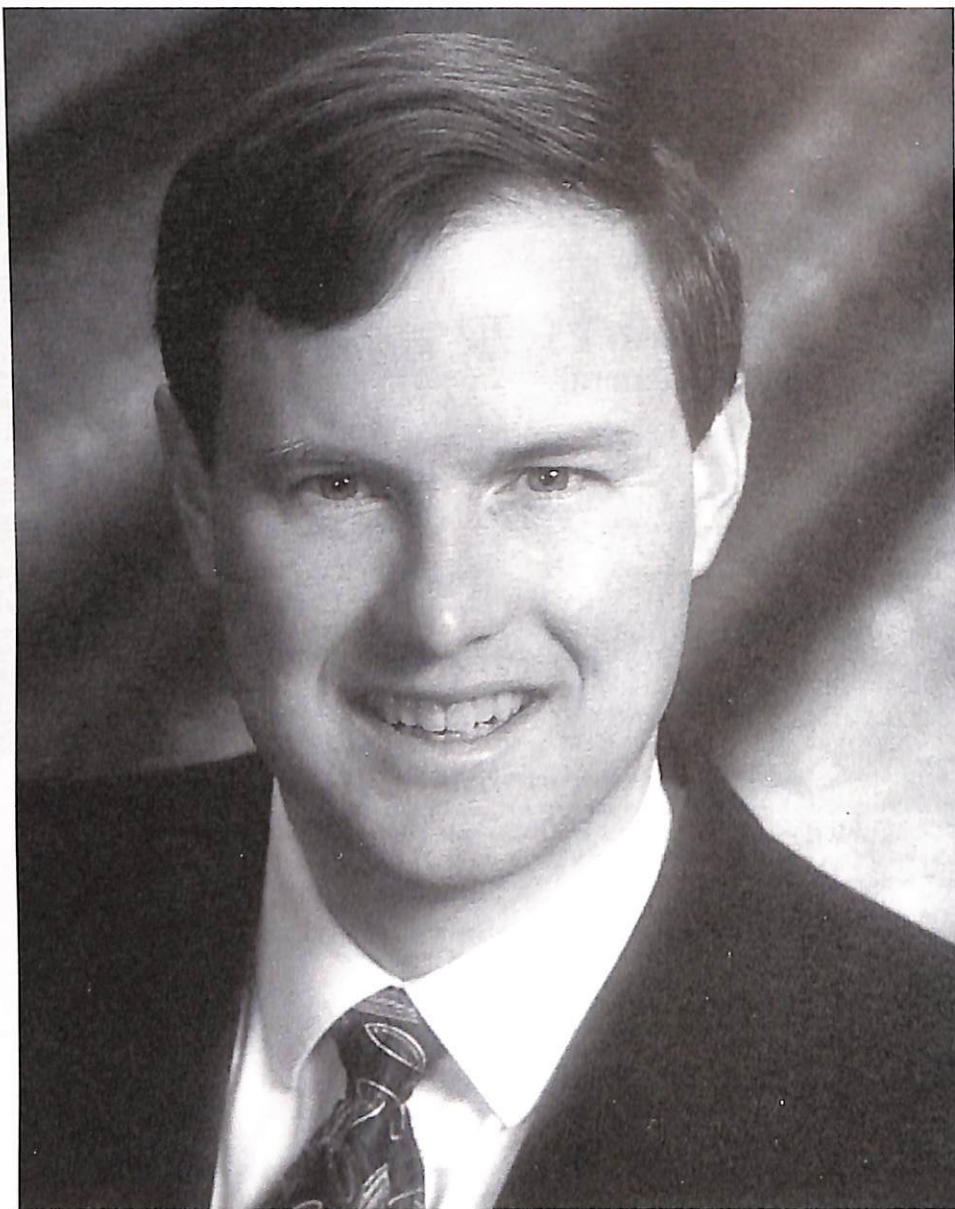

Much the same as in all branches of the military, the heart and soul of all units rests with the Non-Commissioned Officer Corps. The Sergeants of 1998-1999 of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery are no exception. Their work in supporting the staff, the commander and the entire Company has been nothing short of superior. What a great year you sergeants have created for the Company. You have displayed leadership and charity throughout the Commonwealth. Your willingness to help your fellow man has become the tradition of your Corps.

On a personal note, I must mention the great job you did on this year's Fall Field Day Tour of Duty to Canada. I was extremely proud to represent your National Guard on this tour. Every ceremony and function that I attended was done with taste, dignity and pride. None of which would have been possible without the work of the Sergeants.

On behalf of all the soldiers, airmen, Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers of the Massachusetts National Guard, I personally give you our thanks. We will continue to work closely together and I want to salute you for a great year thus far and for the remaining time on your watch.

Sincerely,

Raymond A. Vezina

ANCIENT and HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY OF MASSACHUSETTS

Chartered in 1638

The First Military Company Chartered in the Western Hemisphere

As the settlements, which followed the landing at Plymouth increased and spread, there was no organized military force for protection against the Indians. So-called "Train Bands" were formed in different settlements but these were only local volunteer companies and there was no joint action or centralized authority. Thus the subject of adequate military protection soon became a matter of serious consideration. Many of the settlers had been members in England, of the Honourable Artillery Company at London (organized and chartered in 1527) and it was natural that the military training they had received in that Company should lead them to form a similar organization in the new country. In 1637 a Company was formed for instruction in discipline and tactics, and that year Governor Winthrop was petitioned for a Charter. He refused the request because he feared the establishment of a military force, which might overthrow the civil power. However, the Governor finally granted a Charter in March, 1638, and on the first Monday in June following, an election of Officers was held on Boston Common. The Common then being an open field leading down to the Charles River. The most convenient place to cast the ballots was on the head of the drum, which was placed in front of the Company. Since that time, the Company has maintained the tradition of holding their annual elections on the Boston Common on the first Monday in June by casting the votes on the Drum Head.

The first Captain commanding the Company was Robert Keayne, whose home was on the corner of State and Washington Street. Keayne had been a member of the Honourable Artillery Company of London. Upon his death he left, in his will to the Town of Boston, the land at the head of State Street for a Town House; together with money to build it, providing however, that "the Military Company of Massachusetts" should have a room in the Town House for an Armory. This is the land on which the old State House now stands, the gift of which was accepted by the Town of Boston.

Since 1746, the Company Armory has been the upper floor of Faneuil Hall - an historic citadel known to all Americans.

In its Armory, the Company maintains a Military Museum and Library, which is without equal in the United States. There are relics of every war in which this Country has engaged in, since its settlement. Many of these are Museum pieces and have been on display at various time in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. On the risers of the thirteen steps which lead up to the Headquarters room of the Company, commemorated in bronze plates, are the names of the thirteen States in the order in which they accepted the Constitution and their respective state flag is placed on the respective step. Around the walls of the Armory are the portraits of most of the Captains who have commanded the Company since 1638 to the present day. The Armory is open to the public daily, and many thousands of visitors from every part of the country and many from abroad, are registered every year in the Guest Book.

The position of the members of the Company in the social, civil and military life of the Colony indicates the respect which people entertained for the Company as well as the ability and prominence of its members. They were first in organizing churches and supporting them, they were prominent in framing and also in administering the laws of the Colony; they were foremost in the introduction of manufacturing and the extension of trade in Boston. They were the chief military minds of the Colony and among the first in its defense. Many of them were public benefactors contributing somewhat of their wealth to education, religion and charity.

The members of the Company trod the fields of every battlefield of New England; they fought for freedom on foreign soil; they judged the courts; they pleaded at the bar; they instituted town government and levelled forests; they were active in settling the towns of the frontier. Nineteenth of the Company were loyal to the Colonies in the Revolution, and by their experience in the Ancient and Honourable Artillery Company they served on every battlefield where the banner of Massachusetts waved, from Bunker Hill and Bennington, through Valley Forge to Yorktown.

This is the Company that Washington knew, that Franklin saw march through the streets of Boston, that John Adams and John Quincy Adams visited; that has had seven members who received our nation's highest military decoration - the Medal of Honor - and has had four of its members serve in the world's most important office, President of the United States, President James Monroe, Chester Alan Arthur, Calvin Coolidge and John F. Kennedy; the same Company which has always stood for, and always will stand for, the best in citizenship.

The Swiss Guard

The Swiss Guard founded in 1506 by Julius H. Della Rosa, looks back upon a proud and honorable tradition in the service of the Popes. The Swiss Guard's history of 488 years, as that of any military unit, has seen highs and lows.

On May 6, 1527, the Swiss Guard was annihilated to the last man in combat. Pope Clemens VII had been entangled against his own will in the quarrel between Franz I of France and Charles V of Hapsburg, Emperor of the Holy Roman Empire. Since the Pope sided with the French King, the Emperor declared war and sent out an army of some 20,000 German and Spanish mercenaries to conquer Rome. Clemens VII had only 189 experienced Swiss Soldiers to resist the attack. The Eternal City was soon taken by storm. The Swiss Guard, led by commanding officer Captain Roist of Zurich, offered resistance at the Porta delle Fornai and then retreated towards St. Peter's church, forming a hedgehog position near the Obelisk. Finally, the soldiers were pushed into the church. The last combatants were killed in front of the main altar, the so-called Confessio. The reason for this delaying action was to enable the Pope to escape to nearby Angels' Castle which was regarded as an unconquerable fortress. Since the "Sacco di Roma," as this conquest and the subsequent looting was termed, the Swiss Guard was never again put to such a crucial test.

Throughout its history, the Swiss Guard has remained loyal to its master. When the French occupied Rome in 1789 and 1808, seized the Pope and abducted him to France; when violence broke out in the Pontificate State in 1848 and the people of Rome threatened to attack the Quirinal (the Pope's Palace), the Swiss Guard again faced a difficult task. Every time, the Popes explicitly ruled out the use of arms, and they were right; useless bloodshed had to be prevented in the face of the great majority of attackers. During World War II, when Rome was occupied by German troops, the Swiss Guard again shared the Pope's concern for the misery of the people of Rome.

The duties of the Swiss Guard are described in Article 1 of the Service Code of June 18, 1976. The Swiss Guard is a military unit formed of Swiss citizens liable for military service. The main task of the unit, is the protection of the Pope's safety and his residence, watching over the entrance of the Vatican and keeping all unauthorized people out of the Pontifical State. Finally, the Guard is entrusted with honorary tasks.

When foreign statesmen and ambassadors are welcomed, the Swiss Guard appears in full-dress uniform to show full honor to the guests. An especially solemn ceremony is celebrated when a foreign sovereign is received on an official visit.

According to the code, the Guard is comprised of 100 men. To become a member, one must be Catholic and have completed basic military training in Switzerland. Further prerequisites are: good health, celibacy, minimum height of 176 cm, age below 30, with high school diploma or apprentice certificates and irreproachable character. Before joining as a regular conscript, one must sign up for two years of service. When the two years have elapsed, the service continues unless the soldier gives his notice two months in advance.

About one fourth to one third of the establishment take part in the band. It is sub-divided into three sections: the drummers and pipers, the Gwardichnachts and the brass band. Several Guardists belong to all three groups. The drummers and pipers have the oldest tradition. Since the 15th century, they took part in all military undertakings of the old Confederation. The Gwardichnachts play folk lore music in groups of three to five. The brass band plays marches, waltzes, songs, and characteristic pieces.

The brass band, in full-dress uniform of blue, red and yellow represent the colors of the Medici family of Florence. It is no coincidence, since the Swiss Guard has served under four popes originating from this family. It has been contended that the uniform was designed by Raphael or Michelangelo, but this is not true. It corresponds to the war dress of the Swiss mercenaries in the 16th century. The tambors and pipers are dressed in blue, black and yellow. These are the colors of the Pfyffer family which has provided eleven commanders and many other soldiers and officers in the history of the Swiss Guard.

By permission of Roland Buchs, Commander
Pontifical Swiss Guard

The Honourable Artillery Company

In 1537 Henry VIII formed the company by Letters Patent from an already existing Guild of St. George charging it to attend to the Better Defense of the Realm and encouraging it to exercise in handling bows and handguns. The Company trained in the fields of Finsbury and built the centre part of Armoury House in 1735, adding the wings in 1828.

From the 16th to the 18th Century the Company trained all the officers of the Trained Bands of the City and the Company's other principal—was maintaining law and order on the streets on behalf of the Corporation, before the formation of a police force.

The word "Artillery" in its title is misleading since in the early days the word meant no more than a projectile weapon and the Company was solely infantry for its first 250 years. After distinguished service in the Gordon Riots in 1780 the Corporation presented the Company with two brass cannons, the barrels of which still stand on the stairs in Armoury House, as a reward for their good service. From this time until 1973 the Company had the unique distinction of providing Infantry and Artillery units wearing the same cap badge.

Although members of the Company fought in various wars as individuals, and indeed one, Robert Keyne, an early emigrant to the United States, founded the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts in 1638, the HAC's first formed body deployed on operations was in 1900 in the South African War as part of the City Imperial Volunteers.

When the Territorial Army was formed at the beginning of this Century, the HAC's Military Unit became part of it but the HAC's traditional rights and privileges were preserved by an Act of Parliament in 1908 guaranteeing its independence.

In both World Wars the HAC provided not only its own Infantry and Artillery Units in the frontline but also on each occasion 4,000 officers for other units of the British Army. Today, the Company has 2,400 members of whom 400 are serving in the Military Unit. All the rest have military experience as an essential qualification for membership. The Military Unit has a challenging role as part of NATO's Rapid Reaction Corps with the task of providing small patrols in the forward battle area to acquire intelligence and control long range weapons. The Military Unit also provides Guards of Honour in the City and fires the Salutes at the Tower of London. The Company of Pikemen and Musketeers, who provide the Lord Mayor's Bodyguard, contribute greatly to the ceremonial life of the City and the HAC also has a Light Cavalry Unit which keeps alive the skills of military equitation and takes part in ceremonial functions. The old tradition of policing the streets of London is maintained by the HAC's own Detachment of Special Constables in the Metropolitan Police.

With its historic House and unique area of playing fields, the HAC plays a special part in the life of the City and sponsors many unusual and diverse activities. Cricket has been played here since 1725 and the first ever balloon flight in the United Kingdom was that of Mr. Vincent Lunardi who took off from our Grounds in 1784.

Captain Commanding Robert Keayne

Robert Keayne was born in Windsor, England, 1595. His father John Keayne, was a butcher, but Robert's interest moved him toward a career in merchant tailoring. He moved to London and served his apprenticeship until admitted to membership of the Merchant Tailor Corporation of 1615. He joined the Honourable Artillery Company of London in 1623. He emigrated to Boston, via the ship "Defence", in 1635, at which time he was 40 years of age.

He established his home and his workrooms at the southeast corner of today's State and Washington Street and began to prosper far beyond the average of his fellow colonist. In consequence, he engendered the spiteful resentment of the ruling clergy in the town, a thoroughly common experience at time. Such was the tyranny of the churches in Boston and in the environs that hundreds of spirited settlers fled to establish homesteads and farms in remote parts of New England. There might well be hostile Indians and dangerous animals as well, but these considerations were enormously outweighed by the fact that the harsh and dictatorial "Seven Ministers" were not out there in the wilderness.

As Robert Keayne's worldly estate grew, so did the Ministerial envy, finally culminating in an investigation by the General Court. First, it was felt that, inasmuch as "he was a professor of religion" he should not strive to make money. Secondly, inasmuch as "he was a man eminent ability" he should not strive to make money. Thirdly, inasmuch as "he was already wealthy and had but one child" he should not strive to make money. Fourthly, inasmuch as "he came over for conscience' sake" he should not strive to make money. Fifthly, inasmuch as "he had already been warned by church-elders against money making and promised with tears no to do so" he should earnestly lock his till against the shillings. Wherefore, since he still grew richer, he should be fined 200 Pounds, an enormous penalty for the times. He actually paid fines of 80 Pounds.

The church summoned the culprit and after lengthy debate finally decided to merely admonish Captain Keayne. Keayne was a most popular man in Boston and had been lavishly generous with his wealth, giving money to young Harvard College, to Boston Public School, toward a public market and a "granere", toward a Towne House, toward waterworks, to the Church, to the ministers, to refresh the elderly, to aid his military Company, toward a library, to his servants and workmen, the list grows tedious. His was undoubtedly Boston's greatest philanthropist in his time. Many tales are told of his shrewd business acumen. His lengthy (53 pager, 51,000 words) Will made further donations to many of his earlier beneficiaries and in addition, the land for the Towne House plus 300 Pounds towards his construction. His will also specified that a room should be set aside, in the Town House, to shelter the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, and, moreover, contained wise, far-seeing counsel to the Company and its posterity.

Captain died in 1655 and is buried in King's Chapel Burying Ground.

The Stairway of the Constitution

The tablet (bronze plaque) on each riser running from bottom to top indicates the order in which the States ratified the Constitution.

On Monday, 17 May 1937, the dedication of these plaques took place and was officially designated as "The Stairway of the Constitution."

In May of 1968, Captain Ralph De Stefano arranged for and had installed the flag of the respective State in place on each step. In 1992 the flags were replaced at the time of the restoration and renewal of the Museum/Armory.

Cape Cod Doormats of Distinction®

- Durable • Mildew Proof • Insect Resistant • Reversible
- Floats • Washable • Colorfast • Resistant to Salt Water

Our outdoor mat will withstand the heaviest traffic, trap more dirt, mud, snow, or sand before anyone walks through your door.

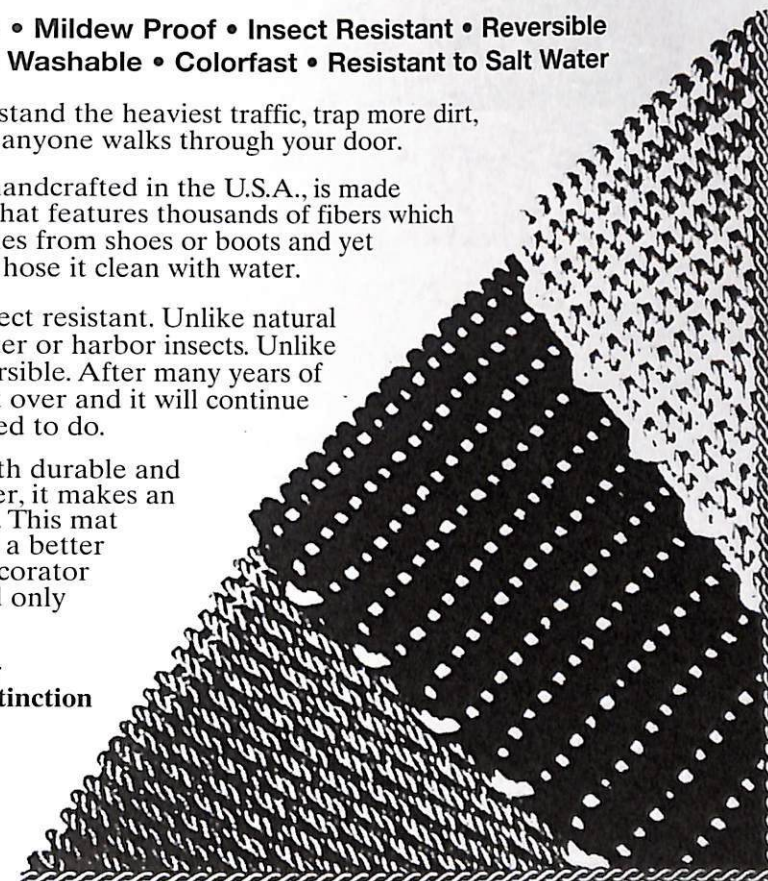

This unique mat which is handcrafted in the U.S.A., is made from Polypropylene rope that features thousands of fibers which remove dirt or sand particles from shoes or boots and yet cleans easily. Just shake or hose it clean with water.

Our mat is mildew and insect resistant. Unlike natural fibers, it will not retain water or harbor insects. Unlike other mats our mat is reversible. After many years of use on one side, just turn it over and it will continue to do the job it was designed to do.

Because the material is both durable and highly resistant to salt water, it makes an excellent boat or pool mat. This mat even floats. You won't find a better quality mat available in decorator colorfast colors. To be used only on non-skid surfaces.

Best of all, there's a Mahoney's near you!

BEST OF BOSTON
1998

We're proud to have been named "Best of Boston" by Boston Magazine for the fourth year in a row! But that's not the only reason to visit Mahoney's. This year, look to Mahoney's for our best selection of flowering trees and shrubs ever! Timeless favorites will be joined by some new varieties and extraordinary new colors. And every year, you can depend on Mahoney's to be your one-stop gardening supply. From flowering baskets, annuals, ground cover, vegetable plants and lawn care products to herbs, decorative pots, quality tools, orchids, perennials, rose plants, top-sized bulbs and potting soil – whatever you need, we'll do our very best to have it in stock and at a really good price. We'll have the expert staff to help with your questions, too. Best of all, there's a Mahoney's near you!

My Personal
Pledge

For nearly 17 years, I have worked hard to build an excellent reputation in the field of Personal Injury Law. I am proud of my track record and the winning results I have achieved for my extensive list of satisfied clients including a $1 million dollar Medical Malpractice settlement and a Workers Comp settlement worth $446,000. You and your family can count on my ability to build a strong case by researching all the facts, calling in expert witnesses when needed, and having the strength to "play hard-ball" with large insurance companies, if negotiations fail. My sole interest when I take a case is to obtain the best possible result for each client, and the case is never closed until the client is satisfied!

THE UNITED STATES NAVY MEMORIAL

Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, between 7th and 9th Streets, Washington, DC
Mailing Address: 701 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Suite 123, Washington, DC 20004-2608
Telephone: (302)737-2300; FAX (302) 737-2308

United States Navy Memorial and Naval Heritage Center

The U.S. Navy Memorial was authorized by Congress in 1980 to honor the men and women of the sea services who have served their country in war and peace. The Memorial and the Naval Heritage Center next to it were developed by the United States Navy Memorial Foundation.

Location: Market Square, between 7th and 9th Streets, Northwest, and Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, DC, midway between the White House and Capitol and immediately north of the National Archives. Served by Metro's Yellow and Green Lines to Archives/Naval Memorial Station.

Concept: An education and functional facility to include "Living Memorial" and a supporting Naval Heritage Center, venues for:

- Free outdoor concerts of the U.S. Navy Band and other famed bands of the military services and visiting high school bands,
- Official honors and ceremonies of the United States Navy, reenlistments, retirements and changes of command,
- Memorial tributes by naval unit reunion groups and other veterans organizations,
- Educational programs fostering awareness and appreciation of America's rich and enduring naval heritage.

Design: A 100-foot diameter circular plaza bearing a grid map, the world's largest map of the world, inlaid in two shades of granite, flanked by fountains, waterfalls and sculptures dedicated to the U.S. Navy and foreign navies.

- Military bands perform on a four-tiered concert stage on the plaza's northern arc.
- The Lone Sailor, a seven-foot tall statue sculpted by Stanley Bleifeld, stands on the grid map and represents all who have served or will serve in the Navy. Two sculpture walls hold 22 bronze relief panels, depicting Navy history or recognizing a Navy community.
- A Naval Heritage Center to support the Memorial's educational objectives.

- Implementation: The exterior Navy Memorial, including the amphitheater, fountains, concert stage and the Lone Sailor Statue, was formally dedicated on the U.S. Navy's birthday, October 13, 1987.

The Naval Heritage Center, opened in June 1991. Twenty-four thousand square feet of space have been leased in the East building of the Market Square commercial development behind the Navy Memorial for the Naval Heritage Center. Occupying two floors, a Quarterdeck and a Gallery Deck, the Naval Heritage Center features:

- AT SEA, a thrilling, action-packed visual and sound spectacular—70MM projected on a two-story high by 52-foot wide screen. At Sea was produced by MacGillivray Freeman Films, creators of To Fly, the National Air and Space Museum's flagship film since 1976. Made possible by Mobil, At Sea is presented in the 250-seat Arleigh and Roberta Burke Theater.
- The Navy Memorial Log Room—displaying service information about present and former sea service members who have supported the Navy Memorial project, 236,000 persons. The Log is now accessible on the Navy Memorial Foundation's Internet site, <http://www.lonesailor.org>.
- Ship's Store gift shop.
- U.S. Presidents Room for meetings, receptions and other catered events.
- Electronic kiosks that present superbly programmed and visually exciting interactive video displays on naval history and the ships and planes of the Fleet.

Hours: 9:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., Monday-Saturday, Naval Heritage Center spaces are available for private meetings, receptions and luncheons for government, business, industry, associations and other organizations.

The Navy Memorial and Naval Heritage Center were funded solely through private, tax-deductible donations. For more information, call the Navy Memorial Foundation, (202) 737-2300.
